

Ceferino Navarro

Born in Valderrubio, Granada. He studied at Universidad de Granada, specialising in History of Art and taking higher level studies. His first research work focused on the art in Granada in the Spanish Golden Age and the 18th century. He started his business activity in the cultural management sector as chairman of Aula de Arte Granada (1994), and subsequently founded his own art and exhibition gallery Galería de Arte Ceferino Navarro (1997), which he currently manages in the city.

His publications include:

- Diego de Pesquera, 1990
- Apperley, el último romántico andaluz, 2001
- Rafael Gurrea, 2001
- Piedra Áurea. Jesús Conde, 2002
- La Frontera Azul, 2004
- La máscara de la Vida, 2004
- Espacios de Luz, 2005